

REGULATIONS FOR ACCREDITATION ASSIGNMENT

1. Accreditations are granted free of charge.
2. Accreditations are granted to a specific individual and cannot be made available to third parties.
3. Accreditations may be requested by journalists and photographers from press, radio, television and online media outlets.
4. Press accreditations are granted on the basis of accreditation applications submitted via a completed form to be downloaded from the website: <https://www.ekai.pl/akredytacje/>. The scanned form should be sent back via e-mail to: akredytacje@ekai.pl.
6. The Accreditation Office reserves the right to reject an accreditation application.
7. The process of accepting accreditation applications will start on August 9, 2021 and will last until August 31, 2021. After this date applications cannot be submitted.
8. The accreditation entitles the holder to participate in the media coverage of the ceremony of Beatification of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński and Mother Elżbieta Rosa Czacka on 12 September 2021 at the Church of Divine Providence in Warsaw and includes:
 - access to the Press Centre;
 - entrance to the square in front of the Church of Divine Providence, the venue of the ceremony.
9. Accreditation does not entitle the holder to enter the Church of Divine Providence.
10. On the premises of the Press Centre the accredited journalists can access:
 - press materials/texts
 - the Internet
 - viewing of the ceremony (video and audio)
 - professional connection for radio journalists
 - briefings before and after the ceremony.

The Press Centre staff will offer all possible assistance to the accredited journalists.

11. While performing their professional tasks, the journalists must carry accreditation cards in a place visible to security staff.
